Pete Coe

Songs from English Tradition 5th - 9th July

Pete has been a full time professional musician since 1971, playing at festivals, concerts & clubs throughout Britain, Europe, USA, New Zealand, & Asia. He's broadcast on national & local radio & has his own recording label, Backshift Music. As a live performer, Pete has gained his reputation for the quality & wide range of his song repertoire & his multi - instrumental accompaniments, a lifetimes experience in choosing the right songs for the audience & occasion.

He's a qualified teacher with presentations for primary & secondary schools. He is a part time lecturer in folk music at Huddersfield University.

Reviews....

"it may be easier and quicker to list the talents that Pete Coe doesn't have." Andy Kershaw, BBCworld, Destination Music, Cheltenham Folk Festival

"Singer, songwriter, melodeon, banjo, dulcimer and bouzouki player, bandleader, arranger, broadcaster, dance caller, teacher, step dancer, entrepreneur, folk club organiser, record label boss, sallow-faced wit, raconteur and all-round good guy, Pete Coe in many ways represents the backbone of the modern folk revival." Colin Irwin MOJO
